

I am an Indiana resident, and I am STRONGLY against the weakening of Indiana's no-call list. These corporations should be able to do any advertising they need to do via television, mail, radio, etc. - while calling on the phone is an interruption to our daily lives. Please do the right thing and deny their selfish petition.